

ELLEN PUCKETT artistic director

Ellen has studied dance for over thirty years. She has studied locally as well as in New York City and Los Angeles. Well versed in wide variety of dance styles, she specializes in Tap, Jazz and Hip Hop.

A true dancer by nature, Ellen still endeavors to further her own dance education with renowned instructors and attends dance seminars to make her a stronger dancer and teacher. Ellen continuously updates her teaching methods and strives to stay current with today's choreography.

An instructor for more than 15 years, many of Ellen's students have gone on to study dance in college, audition for dance companies and become instructors themselves. She has won numerous awards in choreography. Ellen has assisted at the Tremaine Dance Convention and has adjudicated for numerous dance competitions.

Ellen is very excited to begin a new chapter in her dance career as the owner and artistic director of EPIC Dance Studio.
